Touro Application

We Are Touro

For Questions on Admissions, email apply.admissions@touro.edu

We offer this Web-based application in hopes that it will make our application process as easy and convenient as possible for you. You can get started right now and won't have to wait for us to mail you a package. With very few notable exceptions, Touro applications can only be submitted electronically.

This application is part of the ApplyYourself Application Network. You will receive a PIN and Password so that you can return to work on your application over several sessions. Your information is transmitted through a secured server and is kept confidential until you submit your application. Only after you submit your application will it be available for review by our admissions staff.

When you have completed your application and are ready to submit it, you can pay your application fees via credit card online. Applications cannot be submitted or processed until the fee is paid or waived.

Please carefully read the instructions that appear throughout the application pages. You can only submit your application one time. If you have updates to any information you have submitted, please notify the admissions office at once.

To get started on your application, create an account to the right.

If you have previously submitted a Touro Application, you would be required to create a new account with a unique PIN for that application. Please select the Create Account tab on the right to begin this process. (Each school, program or location in Touro Apply Yourself requires a separate application even within the same semester.)

Best of luck. We look forward to reviewing your application.

Some Visa Tips from ietstraining.com

If your program of study is in great demand in your country, get a letter that they hire people with degrees like the one you will get

If your family owns a business, take a letter from the bank describing it

If your family owns property, take the deeds

If you have a sibling who studied in the U.S. and then returned home, take a copy of his or her diploma and a statement from the employer

If you have traveled to the US before as a visitor, emphasize that you returned home

So, you'd like to get into the tech industry, but you're not quite sure where you fit or whether you have the necessary skills. Not to worry! A common misconception is that the tech industry is made up of one type of person. The truth is tech companies need all sorts of people with different strengths and abilities to flourish.

While you may not be the stereotypical "nerdy computer whiz," there still may be a career for you in the tech industry. If staring into screens of Binary or HTML coding isn't quite your speed, you may still find a niche that's right for you in tech. If one or more of the characteristics below describes you, then you could discover a career in tech.

If it's out there, it will be here

TechSpec is bringing you information on all technology topics, helping you find answers to questions you may not even know you have!
